Learn to Mountain Bike:

It's the hottest way to explore the cool green summer mountains.

1 One day Learn to Mountain Bike program. Two hours of personalized instruction in our unique terrain garden...bike and helmet rental...and an all day lift and trail access pass! Just $60

2 Two day Learn to Mountain Bike weekend program. The best way to learn. On Saturday, you'll receive two hours of personalized instruction...a two hour tour on Saturday afternoon...a three hour tour on Sunday morning...a 2-day lift and trail access pass and two days of bike rentals! You even get lunch on each day! Just $160. Lodging extra.

Hot Competition:

Don't miss this year's premier competitive event,

THE River Rage

MOUNTAIN BIKE FESTIVAL

August 26 & 27, 1995

...with Dual Slalom... Cross Country... Kamikaze Downhill and more! NORBA sanctioned... part of the Maine Points Series. And a $5,000 Cash Purse!

MOUNTAIN BIKING can be as challenging or as relaxing as you want it to be. You can ride up and coast down, or test yourself with grueling uphill climbs and single track descents. It's all up to you. Along the way, you'll see spectacular views, beautiful mountain streams and a hundred different types of wildflowers. Hawks, ravens, grouse, deer, fox and moose may be seen at any time.

Sunday River offers over 50 miles of trails within the confines of the park, and the surrounding area offers mile after mile of back roads and old logging tracks to explore. In the evening, there's a wide range of lodging available, plus an assortment of dining options, on the mountain and in nearby Bethel.

Mountain biking at Sunday River. . .it's a great way to share the magic of summer in Maine.

Sunday River's Mountain Bike Park offers you a whole new way to experience the thrill and beauty of the summer mountains of western Maine.
